

Age-friendly Kingston Community Alliance (AFKCA) SEEKING NEW MEMBERS FOR 2017!

What is the AFKCA?

The Age-friendly Kingston Community Alliance is a community-based committee consisting of members from the public and community organizations that serve older adults. The goal of the Alliance is to ensure Kingston is an age-friendly community that enables all citizens to live safely, age actively, maintain their health and participate fully in the community.

What type of members is the AFKCA seeking?

The Alliance is looking for members aged 65 and older who can represent the views and needs of seniors, particularly those that live in the rural parts of the Countryside District of the City of Kingston.

What is the time commitment required?

The Alliance meets during the day once per month for two hours at a central Kingston location. Additional meetings may occur if the need arises.

Where can I find out more information about the Alliance?

More information about the Alliance and the work done to date by the Alliance and the City of Kingston can be found on the Seniors page on the City of Kingston website:

www.cityofkingston.ca/resident/seniors

How do I apply to be on the Alliance?

An information package and application is available on the Seniors Association Kingston Region website: www.seniorskingston.ca.

Application deadline is May 31, 2017. Only selected applicants will be contacted.
