

The Centre for Studies in Aging & Health

Working collaboratively to build capacity and promote awareness with our partners in knowledge translation and exchange, through education and research to promote successful aging.

Meaningful Connections in Aging: Inclusive Communities & Emerging Technologies

November 1, 2019 8:00-4:00 PM

Time	Topic	Speaker
08:00-08:30	Continental Breakfast & Registration
08:30-08:45	Opening Remarks: Cathy Szabo, President & Chief Executive of Providence Care	Moderator Sarah Webster
08:45-09:30	"Look at all the lonely people: social isolation and loneliness in older adults"	Dr Nathan Stall
09:30-10:00	"Aging While Poor: Why Poverty is Worst on the Elderly, and Aging is Worst on the Poor"	Ian Clark
10:00-10:30	Coffee & Posters
1030-1115	Providing Culturally and Clinically Competent Care for LGBT2SQ Senior	Devan Nambiar
11:15-11:45	"Social Isolation among Older adults with vision loss, hearing loss, and dual sensory loss: Problems and Possibilities".	Dr. Atul Jaiswal
11:45-12:15	Housing Needs for Older Adults in Canada and Ontario	Dr. John Puxty
12:15-1:15	Lunch
1:15 – 2:00	A Panel Caregiving Experiences " We Need to do Better" Sarah Webster Moderator	Vicky Willis + Judy Tetlow
2:00 - 2:20	Coffee and Posters
2:20- 3:45	"Enabling Independence and Well-being in Aging through Smart Sensor Solutions"	Dr. Bruce Wallace & Dr. Frank Knoefel
3:45-4:00	Door prizes & closing	Dr. Puxty