

CSAH TEAM 2013

CO-DIRECTOR • Dr. John Puxty

A Geriatrician, John is Chair of the Division of Geriatric Medicine at Queen's University and the Chair of the Southeastern Ontario Regional Geriatric Program. John has a primary interest in promoting healthy aging and effective care for seniors with a research interest in aging, chronic disease, knowledge mobilization and information technology.

CO-DIRECTOR • Dr. Ken Le Clair

A Psychiatrist, Ken is the Regional Partnership & Development Coordinator and Academic Chair of Geriatric Psychiatry at Providence Care. Nationally, he is the Co-Founder of the Academy of Geriatric Psychiatry and Co-Chairs the Canadian Coalition for Seniors' Mental Health. Ken's interests are geriatric mental health, interprofessional primary care and knowledge transfer.

MANAGER • Ms. Gail Hawley Knowles

A Registered Nurse, Gail holds a leadership role in collaborating with other members of the CSAH team. Gail coordinates, develops and facilitates the creation of linkages, partnerships and networks, resources (people, products and funds), and promotes effective change management processes related to aging and health.

SECRETARY • Ms. Julia Miller

With her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology as well as training in audio/visual and multimedia production, Julia supports the team with her experience in project and document management, design and photography. Julia takes a leadership role in assisting to update materials both for professional and patient audiences, as well as supporting all team members in their initiatives.

SENIOR RESEARCHER & PROGRAM EVALUATOR • Dr. Rosemary Brander

A Physiotherapist, Rosemary facilitates partnerships and collaborative networks of researchers and evaluators and provides leadership and direction for development of increased capacity for research and evaluation. Rosemary is also Director of Queen's University's Office of Interprofessional Education & Practice and Lecturer for the School of Rehabilitation Therapy.

WEB PROJECTS & INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGN LEAD • Ms. Phileen Dickinson

A Programmer Analyst, Web and Graphic Designer, Phileen takes a leadership role in developing and maintaining the technology behind CSAH's web-based platforms including design and implementation of e-learning strategies and resources. She also provides illustrative, graphic and multimedia design elements which enhance printed, interactive and online materials.

ADMINISTRATIVE LIAISON OFFICER • Mr. Gordon Wood

With experience in Public Relations and Strategic Communications, Gordon edits, writes and develops content for CSAH & sagelink.ca. Gordon engages with local, regional and provincial groups and individuals about CSAH & sagelink.ca project activities and collects, analyzes and maintains information supporting organizational processes, communication plans and strategies.

PROJECT RESOURCE CONSULTANT • Ms. Sarah Webster

Having completed her Masters with a focus on Gerontology, Sarah has had a career focus on improving the lives of older adults with complex needs. Her extensive practical experience with system-level knowledge translation and exchange. Sarah understands the unique needs of this population while effectively engaging stakeholders, connecting complex parts in the system and facilitating shared solution finding.

KNOWLEDGE BROKER • Ms. Ayesha Ratnayake

With her Masters degree in public health, Ayesha has been instrumental in the design and evaluation of an e-learning curriculum at the Institute of Population Health while leading a knowledge translation project. Her past experience serves as a valuable resource for her role with CSAH, enhancing educational material for health care professionals.

KNOWLEDGE BROKER • Ms. Denise Owsianicki

A Registered Nurse, with a Masters in Nursing and a focus on teaching and an interest in quality improvement, Denise brings extensive knowledge of Long-term Care Homes and Hospitals to the projects she will undertake.